To Whom It May Concern,

It is with much enthusiasm that I am writing to recommend the services of J. Beard Management, Inc a certified minority business enterprise with our office.

I have known J. Beard Management Inc., for the past ten years and have always been satisfied with their performance and services. They do an excellent job providing construction management and commissioning services that focus on delivering a quality project, with the owners and general contractors requirements.

This firm have been hired by many general contractors on city funded projects for the past 20 years where they have shown their expertise in supplier diversity consulting per City of Indianapolis, Office of Minority & Women Business Development guidelines.

Sincerely,

Fahad Beg
